

FLOW SERVICE CENTER CALIBRATION

Long-Term Stability and Measurement Accuracy

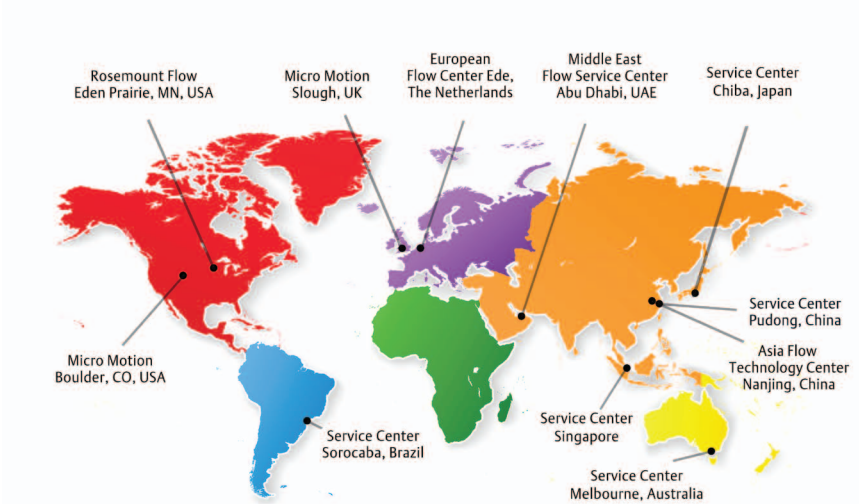

Emerson’s Calibration Service for Micro Motion® Coriolis flow and density and Rosemount® Magnetic and Vortex meters ensures the success and accuracy of your measurement devices and the optimal performance of your process.

With a global network of ISO/IEC17025 accredited calibration services, you are assured complete calibration coverage for mass flow, density, temperature, pressure and volume calibrations with mass flow uncertainties as low as 0.017% and density uncertainties as low as 0.03%.

Emerson’s Flow Calibration & Service Centers can recalibrate your Coriolis, Density, Viscosity and Magnetic or Vortex flowmeters to their original uncertainty level.

Flow Calibration and Service Centers

WHAT IF...

Your process demands the best accuracy calibration for mass and density?

You need insight on the accuracy and repeatability of your flowmeter?

Calibration according to ISO/17025 is required for your flowmeters?

With our Flow Calibration Service your devices are calibrated using the highest accredited standards.

Flow Calibration Types:

- As Found
- As Left
- ISO/IEC 17025
