

DeltaV™ Agent.Connect

Version 1.0

DeltaV Agent.Connect is an AI-powered application that provides fast, accurate, and user-friendly access to technical information across the full DeltaV Distributed Control System (DCS) product portfolio, including the DeltaV Edge Environment. Rather than manually searching through documentation, users can ask questions in natural language and receive direct answers drawn from authoritative Emerson sources, including DeltaV Knowledge Base Articles (KBAs), product data sheets, technical documentation, and Books Online.

Verifiable answers

Every response cites an official Emerson source

Chat history

Review and continue past conversations

Continuous improvement

Rate responses to further enhance accuracy

This is just the beginning

DeltaV Agent.Connect represents the first step in bringing AI capability to the DeltaV Edge Environment. Future releases are planned to progressively expand what it can do, from the data it draws on, to reasoning in the context of process data available on DeltaV Edge, to the questions it can answer.
